Rules of Enumeration.—Columns 9, 10, 11, 12, 16 to 19, inclusive, an affirmative mark only will be used, thus /, except in the case of divorced persons, column 11, when the letter "D" is to be used.
Column 13. The occupation to be stated is usually or principally followed, as in the case of a person who works part of the time on a farm and part of the time at shoemaking, the occupation to be stated is that at which he works the greater part of the time. If no affirmative answer has been given either to question 19 or to question 11, then question 13 will only be asked in case where a gainful occupation has been reported in column 12.
Column 14. The number of months to be stated in answer to this question will be the number during the census year in which the person has been unemployed, as in the case of a miner who is thrown out of employment by the stopping of the mine, or a seamstress who has no work to do, or a laborer who cannot find work.
Columns 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20. Affirmative answers to be indicated by a mark, thus /.
Columns 21, 22, 23. In answering these questions the words of the enumeration in the name of the month may be used, as Jan., Apr., Dec.
